Dashboard: Organization

Defaults to Create an Event

These are all collapsible menu items so user's don't have to navigate to new pages

The image shows a screenshot of a mobile-style dashboard titled "Organization Dashboard". The title is in red at the top left. Below it are three main menu items, each represented by a button-like card with a downward arrow icon in the top right corner:

- Create an Event (blue card)
- Edit an Event (light gray card)
- View Profile (light gray card)

The "Create an Event" item is currently active or selected, indicated by its blue color. The other two items are in a standard light gray state.

General Functions

- Available to all users: Super Admin and Organization
- Other pages, visible to general audiences

Edit Profile: For all users

The diagram illustrates a user profile editing process across three stages:

- Initial State: On the left, a vertical stack of input fields includes "Edit an Event" dropdowns, "View Profile" dropdowns, "First Name" (Test), "Last Name" (User), "Organization" (Microsoft), "Email" (testuser@ms.com), and "First Name" (placeholder "Enter First Name here"). A red "Edit My Info" button is at the bottom.
- Confirmation Stage: In the center, a modal dialog titled "Update Profile?" asks "Is your profile correct?". It contains two buttons: "No" and "Yes". The "Yes" button is highlighted with a blue circle. Below the modal, a second "First Name" field and another "Edit My Info" button are visible.
- Success Stage: On the right, the user profile has been updated. The "First Name" field now shows "Microsoft", and the "Email" field shows "testuser@ms.com". A large green success message box reads "Success! Your changes have been saved".
